MEET THE ARTIST

Hi, I'm Julie

I'm an artist based on the west coast of Canada in Vancouver, British Columbia. Drawing inspiration from nature, animals, and the latest trends, I blend traditional and digital art techniques to create my unique designs. With years of experience selling my designs through print-on-demand platforms and digital products, I know how to create high-quality artwork that connects with customers and helps products stand out. I look forward to hearing from you and working together to create something beautiful and unique for your catalogue.

BRANDS I'VE WORKED WITH

I've sold thousands of products worldwide through print on demand companies. I've also partnered with brands as an affiliate, and am a successful Skillshare teacher with over 4,000 students.
